Organisational Context

Women's Health West is the women's health service for the western metropolitan region of Melbourne. We focus on supporting women and their children to lead safe and healthy lives and on changing the conditions that cause and maintain inequity and injustice. We do this through two main complementary programs. Our health promotion program plans and implements activities designed to promote women's health, safety and wellbeing across the areas of sexual and reproductive health, mental health and the prevention of violence and discrimination. Our integrated family violence service provides a range of programs to women and children who experience family violence, including court support, crisis housing and case management. We also provide services designed to promote healing and recovery such as women's and children's counselling. We work collaboratively with communities, government and local agencies to influence public policy or change legislation, to improve access to services and resources, and to build individual, community and organisational capacity to improve the status of women. WHW is funded by local, state and federal government grants, and receives additional funding from benevolent trusts and philanthropic organisations.

Position Purpose

The crisis response team leader reports to the crisis response manager and is a member of the leadership team at WHW. This position supervises a team of family violence crisis case managers who provide a triage and immediate response to women in crisis experiencing family violence (mainly police L17 referrals). The team leader is responsible for providing daily leadership, management and coordination of WHW's crisis response services to women and children in the western metropolitan region experiencing family violence. In conjunction with other staff and team leaders this position oversees the administration of resources including emergency financial support to women and children. This position is responsible for providing client-focused supervision and operational support to crisis case managers to ensure the delivery of high quality family violence crisis response. This position contributes to the planning, implementation, monitoring and review of crisis response services within the integrated family violence services plan, and contributes to the maintenance of DHHS performance standards to achieve ongoing accreditation. They also contribute to the development and achievement of team and organisation goals and actively promote the development of a positive organisational and workplace culture in line with the principles of the organisation and the expectations of WHW's strategic plan.

Key Results Areas and Responsibilities

Coordinate the effective management and delivery of family violence crisis services including planning, implementation, monitoring and review of activities specified in the WHW integrated family violence services work plan.
